Oldest Woman In Wasatch Dies

Mrs. Annie K. Moulton, 93, oldest woman in Wasatch County, died Friday at 6 a. m. at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. E. Holdaway in Heber.

Mrs. Moulton was born in Horsens, Denmark, March 12, 1857, a daughter of Inger Marie and Henrick Jensen. At the age of 17, she came to Utah with her sister, Mary, and resided in Salt Lake City for several months before moving to Heber City.

She was married to Joseph Moulton in the old Salt Lake Endowment House, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Feb. 28, 1876. Her husband died in 1935.

Active in church work, she was Relief Society teacher and magazine agent for many years. Mrs. Moulton was field representative of Excelsis Beauty Products for many years.

Surviving her are two daughters, Mrs. L. E. Holdaway (Violet) and Van Moulton of Heber; and a son, Lyman H. Moulton of Provo. Also surviving are the sons and daughters of her husband, Joseph G. Moulton, Mrs. Josie Todd and Francis Moulton of Heber; Wm. A. Moulton, Provo; John W. Moulton, H. Chase Moulton, Charles Moulton and Mrs. Lyle Pruett of Salt Lake City; Nephi Moulton, Jackson Wyoming; and Thomas J. Moulton, Klamath Falls, Oregon. There are 11 grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services for Mrs. Moulton were held in the Wasatch Stake Tabernacle, Sunday, Aug. 13 at 3:00 p. m. with Bishop Lynden Chapman of the Heber Fourth Ward in charge. The services were as follows:

Prayer at the home, Patriarch John Moulton; prelude, "Oh, My Father," Mary Coleman; duet, "Whispering Hope," Maybell Moulton and Donna Montgomery, accompanied by Ethel Moulton Watson; prayer, J. Angus Christensen, Pres. of Palmyra Stake; remarks, Bishop Lynden Chapman; life history of "Aunt Annie", Dorothy Holdaway, a granddaughter; speaker, Ralph F. Giles; duet, "I Come To The Garden Alone," Marjorie Provost and Roy Huffaker; speaker, Bishop I. Sander of Heber Third Ward; violin duet, "Perfect Day", Maurine Moulton Thomas and Florine Whiting; closing prayer, Walter Holdaway, Pres. of Orem Stake; postlude, "Nearer My God To Thee", Mary Coleman; graveside prayer, Henry Moulton.

Pallbearers were grandsons of Mrs. Moulton and included Floyd Holdaway, Dean Todd, Roy Todd, Jack Moulton, Glen Moulton and Howard Eggleston.

Many out of town relatives and friends of the family of Mrs. Moulton were here to attend the services.
